

How to Prepare for Your Strategy Call

We're excited to guide you on your journey to achieving a Bachelor's or Master's degree abroad. This strategy call is an essential step towards understanding your academic and professional goals, addressing any questions you have, and laying the groundwork for your successful future.

Questions to Reflect On Before Your Strategy Call

Thinking about these questions will help us better understand your aspirations and tailor our discussion to fit your unique situation:

1. Your Motivation for Studying Abroad:

- What drives your desire to study abroad? Is it the pursuit of academic excellence, exposure to a new culture, or something else? Knowing your motivation helps us align your path with your goals.

2. Preferred Field of Study:

- Do you have a specific field or major in mind for your Bachelor's/Master's? Your academic interests will guide our conversation towards suitable programs and universities.

3. Concerns About International Education:

- Any questions or worries about studying in a different country? This might include adaptation to a new culture, managing finances, or language barriers.

4. Adjustment to a New Culture:

- How do you feel about living in a different cultural environment? Your readiness to adapt is critical in selecting the best destination for your studies.

5. Expectations from Divine Education Abroad Consultancy:

- What assistance do you expect from us? Whether it's help with choosing the right university, application support, or exam preparation, understanding your needs enables us to serve you better.

6. Managing Studies and Personal Life:

- How do you plan to balance academic responsibilities with personal well-being and hobbies? Discussing your strategy for maintaining balance can illuminate potential challenges and solutions.

7. Goals for Your Degree Program:

- What do you hope to achieve with your degree? Whether it's gaining specific skills, engaging in research, or preparing for a career, your objectives will shape our advice.

Gathering Your Academic Records

While not required for the call, having your academic transcripts, extracurricular activities, and any honors or recognitions on hand can be useful. This allows us to understand your academic background and guide you more effectively.

What to Expect in the Strategy Call:

- Personalized Advice: Tailored recommendations based on your interests, goals, and preferences to help you choose the best Bachelor's/Master's program.
